

Comprehension - Measuring our Carbon Footprint

1. What type of things do we all do everyday to contribute to greenhouse gas emissions?
2. If everyone in the world lived like we do in Ireland how many planet Earths would we need?
3. What is the average greenhouse gas emissions of an Irish person per year measured in tonnes?
4. How much of this can we control as individuals?
5. If we want to tackle climate change how many tonnes do we need to reduce this to?
6. How do our emissions compare to other EU citizens?

7. How can we measure our carbon footprint?

8. What could Yvonne and her housemates do to reduce their carbon footprint?

9. What tips do the people at the end of the clip give?

