

The Environmental Protection Agency's waste statistics team surveys waste companies annually so that we can prepare national waste statistics and track Ireland's progress in meeting national and EU waste diversion and recovery targets. Information collected specifically for waste statistics is used for statistical purposes only, and published in aggregated form. Data provided by individual respondents is treated confidentially.